2018-2019 TRAVEL GRANT PROGRAM

ABOUT US

The Rural and Minority Health Research Center's mission is to illuminate and address the problems experienced by rural and minority populations in order to guide research, policy, and related advocacy.

- Rural cancer control is one of the National Cancer Institute (NCI) Division of Cancer Control & Population Sciences' research emphasis areas.
- The Rural and Minority Health Research Center served as a facilitator for meeting attendance by Federal Office of Rural Health Policy-funded Rural Health Research Centers.
- Provided a schedule of important cancer research meetings with guidance from NCI staff.
- Promoted attendance by providing travel reimbursements, travel policies & documentation reports.
- To promote collaboration between established cancer researchers and rural health experts.
